The Word of the Lord

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11
This poem discusses how the spirit of wisdom is far more beautiful than any riches could be. All gold is no more than sand when compared to the importance of wisdom, which often leads people to the other good things in life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13
God's perception of people is called "sharper than any two-edged sword." God is able to know the thoughts and feelings of all his people. We can hide nothing from him, and will need to account for all he has seen in us.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30
A man asks Jesus how he can share in everlasting life. Jesus tells him to sell his possessions and travel with them. The man refuses and Jesus tells his disciples how difficult it is for a rich person to enter heaven if they are too concerned with their possessions. The disciples remind Jesus that they gave up everything for him, but he assures them they will be rewarded with everlasting life.

St. John's Family Page

Go and sell everything you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.

At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. We are left to wonder if the riches were controlling this young man. Jesus did not force the rich young man to follow him. Jesus gave him a choice. We know that only in God will we find true happiness. TV commercials, advertisements etc. try to convince us that happiness can be found if we own this … or travel to this place … or by doing this …. whatever the "this" may be. However, in believing that, we too will only walk away sad.

The First Commandment says: I am the Lord your God, you shall not have strange gods before me. This commandment invites each one of us to ask the question: Do I place God first in my life above everything else? Do I depend on God with a childlike trust, knowing that He is leading me every moment of my life?

Power, status, fame, prestige, money are not requirements for entry into the everlasting Kingdom of God. We read in today's Letter to the Hebrews: No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account. So the decisions we make in this life determine our happiness in eternal life.

Will this gospel passage reveal to us what is controlling our lives, our time? We must always decide for Jesus – otherwise we too will walk away sad.

Solomon was not born with wisdom, he prayed for it. Solomon asked God for wisdom above the riches and power befitting of a king. Let Solomon's prayer be ours as well: I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. May God bless us abundantly with wisdom to always discern His Will!
Deacon Mike

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) will start in September at St. John's! RCIA is for anyone discerning the Catholic faith and for those who are already Baptized Catholic, desiring First Communion and / or Confirmation. Contact Deacon Mike in the Religious Education Office to join RCIA or for more information / questions: 732-388-1253, myork@sjanj.net

Bereavement Group

There is a support group for those grieving the death of a loved one here at St. John the Apostle. The group provides a Christ-centered experience for those grieving the loss of a loved one. The group offers a caring, compassionate, confidential atmosphere for the sharing of experiences. If you are interested in joining us, or if you would like more information about the group, contact Deacon Mike at 732-388-1253 or myork@sjanj.net. All calls are confidential. Pre-registration is required.

Children's Liturgy

The Children's Liturgy will be held at the 10:30 AM Mass. Families with children should just come to Mass as you normally do. Children will have their own Liturgy of the Word, including a special teaching just for them! Volunteer teachers are needed. If interested, please contact Deacon Mike: myork@sjanj.net 732-388-1253

Do you want to learn about the Bible?:*
