As a Catholic community of faith, St. John the Apostle calls everyone to encounter Jesus Christ, through the Word of God, the Sacraments, prayer, and evangelization. Guided by the Holy Spirit we are disciples of Christ and are sent out to announce the Good News to everyone.

Pray for the Deceased and their Families

Thomas J. Murphy ✠ Bonifacio Enriquez

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let Your perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

The Word of the Lord

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9 Jeremiah speaks of God reuniting the people of Israel after their exile. He states that although they departed in tears, God will lead them all back and protect them, because he is father to Israel.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6 Each high priest is taken from among people and offers sacrifices for their sins. High priests do not choose to take on this honor, but are chosen by God. Even Christ did not choose this office, but was chosen by God to be a priest forever.

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52 A blind beggar approached Jesus and pleaded that Jesus heal him. Jesus called the man over and said, "Your faith has healed you." The man immediately received his sight and proceeded to follow Jesus up the road.

October Gives Us a Unique Beauty

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark
Mount Carmel Guild Behavioral Health System
Mount Carmel Guild Schools

October is resplendent with the beauty of nature. The fall gives us an invigorating lift. We seem to feel "fully alive" looking forward to a new beginning filled with energy.

Would you be willing to channel some of that energy to help those less fortunate by sorting through your home for the following: clothing, small appliances, shoes, tools, linens, sheets, towels, stuffed animals, novels and children's books? Thank you.

The Donation Bin is located in the parking lot between the McGuinness Center and school annex next to the Boy Scout trailer.

The St. Vincent DePaul Society of St. Johns

will be collecting and distributing Thanksgiving food donations for the needy families of our parish. We can accept frozen turkeys and non-perishable food items, on Monday, November 22 at the rectory garages up to 6:15 pm.

Due to need to handle frozen turkeys, and limited space, we can accept donations only on November 22.

Thank you for your generosity Now and throughout the year.

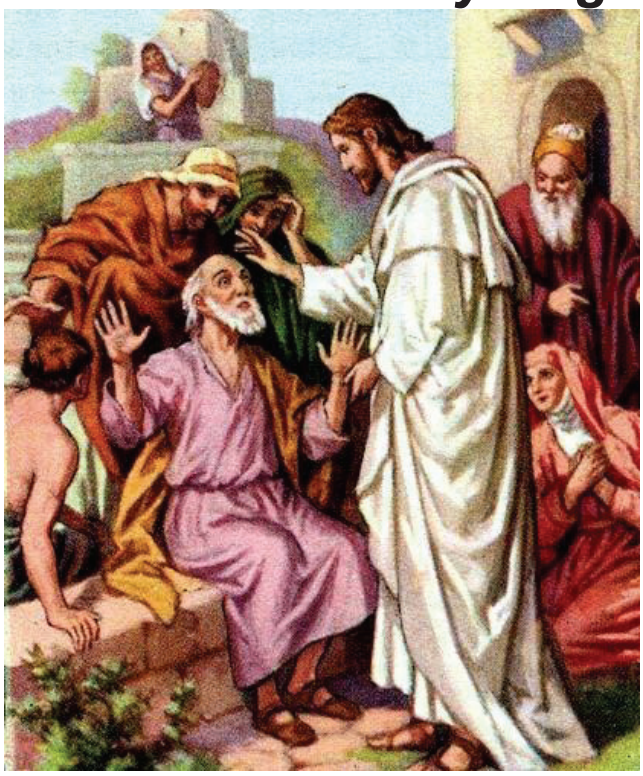
What a wonderful way to give thanks for your Faith and support the future work of our Church! To leave a gift to our parish, the wording in a will must include the corporate name of our parish,
St. John the Apostle Roman Catholic Church.
A legacy gift to the parish will help with structural improvements to make buildings more accessible and welcoming, and facilitate programs for the spiritual education and growth of our parish community.
God bless you for your generosity.

Beginning in November St. John the Apostle School will be selling Shoprite and Acme gift cards after Masses on Saturday night at 5:30 Mass and Sunday at the 10 & 12 noon Masses.

St. John's Family Page



Today's gospel is the fulfillment of the first reading: the prophet Jeremiah's description of the messianic era. God calls the Israelites out of bondage. He will be their leader and much more. "For I am a father to Israel."

In the second reading, in the same way that every high priest was called by God, God the Father calls his Son, Jesus Christ to sacrifice his life, so we may share in the life of the Holy Trinity.

In our gospel, Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus, with trust and perseverance. Jesus answers the blind man's call. Jesus not only opens the man's eyes, but He opens his heart. Jesus heals him physically and spiritually. We can see a progression of growth in the blind man's spiritual development. Bartimaeus starts out in the story as a believer. How do we know he is a believer? "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me." This verse tells us that the blind man not only knew of Jesus, but he believed that Jesus is the Messiah.

The gospel story ends by telling us that Bartimaeus followed Jesus "on the way". While the gospel doesn't tell us anything about the rest of Bartimaeus' life…we can imagine that he led others to Jesus by sharing his story – his experience of Jesus Christ in his life.

All of us have a story to tell…a story of what Jesus has done in our life – our own experience of Jesus Christ. We should be ready to tell our story at any time…perhaps best by how we live…in persevering in prayer and growing in a trusting relationship with Jesus every day and following Jesus "on the way".

Just as Bartimaeus called out to Jesus, so must we… and Jesus will respond: "What do you want me to do for you?" May Jesus open our eyes too – so we can see his presence in our brothers and sisters in Christ!

May God bless us all always!

Deacon Mike
