The Word of the Lord

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

Isaiah recounts the awe he felt the first time he saw the Lord, who was surrounded by angels. He began to feel despair because he was a man of unclean lips, until an angel touched an ember to his lips and pronounced them clean. The Lord asked who he should send forth, to which Isaiah replied, "Here I am, send me!"

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Paul reminds the Corinthians that Christ died for us to free us from our sins. He encourages them to remember the importance of Jesus' death and resurrection. He admits that he initially failed to believe, and therefore was very grateful to be called an apostle and preach in the name of Christ.

Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

Luke tells of Jesus preaching to a crowd, then joining Peter who was about to end a fruitless day of fishing. He told Peter to lower his net back in, and a great number of fish were caught. Upon seeing this, Peter and his companions, James and John, immediately abandoned their nets to follow Jesus.

"FORMED" TALK OF THE MONTH GROUP

What is this group? It is like a "book" of the month club, except we "listen" to a particular talk on the FORMED website and discuss the topic at the meeting.

When: Wednesday – February 13th, 2019

Time: 7:30 to 9:00 pm

Where: St. John's Church- Parish Rectory Parlor

Talk: *Listen past the end of talk for witness by Fr. Burke Masters

In this talk, internationally known speaker and author Matthew Leonard defines and discusses the three traditional stages of prayer. According to Scripture, every one of us is called to "be perfect" and to "pray without ceasing." Prayer is the path to God, and many of us have been saying prayers all our lives. But are we really praying? Matthew lays

Thank you Blood Buddies! Our winter blood drive last month was a success! Our goal was 26 units and we received 30 units! Our next drive will be held on Saturday, June 15, 2019 so save the date. So thank you again and may God bless you!

St. John's Family Page

We read in today's first reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah when he encounters the thrice holy God: Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips, yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts! Simon Peter tells Jesus in today's gospel, after witnessing the miraculous catch of fish: Depart from me Lord, for I am sinful man. We see that both of them immediately feel unworthy in the presence of God, aware of their own limitations and shortcomings. As a result of encountering God, life would be changed in a radical way. They will never be the same person. St. Paul in today's second reading from 1st Corinthians says the same thing. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle...But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective.

Jesus invites Peter into a vocation to follow Him: Do not be afraid, from now on you will be catching men. Isaiah hears the voice of the Lord: Whom shall I send? Who will go for us? What is the response to this invitation? Isaiah promptly responds: "Here I am", I said, "send me!" Peter does the same: ...they left everything and followed him.

God speaks to each one of us as well. How so Perhaps much like God spoke to Elijah... more in a tiny whispering sound, then in the "noise" of our lives. We obey God by choice, just as Isaiah and Peter did. Are we aware of God speaking to us throughout our day?...in prayer, Sacred Scriptures, the sacraments, in creation, through life's circumstances and through our brothers and sisters in Christ. Are we listening? How are we responding? God bless us all always! Deacon Mike

Bereavement Group

Do you want to learn about the Bible?

Examine the four pillars of our Catholic Catechism: faith, morality, prayer and the sacraments through the Scriptures. St. John the Apostle's Frank Tremmel will be instructing the session, providing us with an overview to help us know and experience the power of Word of God. The next session on March 5th will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 PM in the teacher's lounge. Attendance will also qualify towards the Doctrinal portion of Catechist Certification.
